Let me take this opportunity to introduce myself. My name is Daniel Kromeich and I am the editor of this book. And you can see it was a task that almost put me in my grave. Putting together a yearbook is hard work. My staff this year was larger than in the past few years but it was still small for the amount of work that has to be done. Now that the book has been finished, I would like to thank everyone who has helped me put this book together. Thank you staff. Thanks Mr. Swords for being a good advisor and for being there when I needed you, thanks Ruth Pohlmann, Linda Moore, Patty Zalud, Wendy Sargeant, Franklin Kallner, Gulien Otulzu, Jeanine Bond, Chuck Mize. Thank you photographers, Scott Larsen, Ken Duey, Erich Addicks, Bill Wightman ... Thank you to all the faculty and administration members who helped in any way. Thank you everyone your services were well appreciated. Thanks also to Gregg Weeks-yearbook representative from Walsworth publishing co. thanks for all of your help and guidance.

Before you open to the rest of the book I would like you to remember that with a small staff and all the work to be done mistakes do happen. So let me apologize to all those who are left out of the book, to those whose names are misspelled and to those whose names have been omitted from the book.

Sincerely,
Daniel Kromeich
